Racism There have been attempts to legitimize racist beliefs through scientific means, such as scientific racism,. evolutionary biologist Richard Dawkins writes that "Blood-feuds and inter-clan warfare are easily interpretable in terms of Hamilton's genetic theory Racism is the belief that groups of humans possess different behavioral traits corresponding to inherited attributes and can be divided based on the superiority of one race or ethnicity over another.

Modern variants of racism are often based in social perceptions of biological differences between peoples. It may also mean prejudice, discrimination, or antagonism directed against other people because they are of a different ethnic background. These views can take the form of social actions, practices or beliefs, or political systems in which different races are ranked as inherently superior or inferior to each other, based on presumed shared inheritable traits, abilities, or qualities 7fc53a018b
