

Original Sin Star Trek Deep Space Nine

Following the success of Star Trek: The Next Generation, Paramount Pictures commissioned a new series set in the Star Trek fictional universe. In creating Deep Space Nine, Berman and Piller drew upon plot elements introduced in The Next Generation, namely the conflict between two species, the Cardassians and the Bajorans. Deep Space Nine was the first Star Trek series to be created without the direct involvement of franchise creator Gene Roddenberry, the first set on a space station rather than a traveling starship, and the first to have... Worf's relationship with Jadzia Dax hits a rough spot, and he plans to discuss his feelings during their vacation on Risa. They arrive — along with Dax's friends Julian Bashir, Quark, and Leeta — at the beautiful, climate controlled... Box sets Set in the 24th century, the series follows the adventures of the crew of the space station Deep Space Nine. This episode takes place on Risa, a fictional planet in the Star Trek universe that is a popular vacation spot, with an open attitude toward sexuality and a sophisticated weather control system. In this episode, romantically-involved Deep Space Nine crew members Jadzia Dax and Worf visit Risa during a rough spot in their relationship, where Worf becomes involved with a movement in opposition to Risa's creature comforts. Vanessa L. Williams guest stars as Arandis, the social director of a Risan resort. Plot The episode's title comes from the teaching of the adulterous woman in the Gospel of John. Its premiere had 6.78 million viewers.
