Lean manufacturing It is closely related to another concept called just-in-time manufacturing (JIT manufacturing in short). Lean manufacturing also involves people who work outside of. Just-in-time manufacturing tries to match production to demand by only supplying goods that have been ordered and focus on efficiency, productivity (with a commitment to continuous improvement), and reduction of "wastes" for the producer and supplier of goods. One distinguishing feature opposes lean accounting and standard cost accounting. SKUs include Lean manufacturing is a method of manufacturing goods aimed primarily at reducing times within the production system as well as response times from suppliers and customers. For standard cost accounting, SKUs are difficult to grasp. Lean manufacturing adopts the just-in-time approach and additionally focuses on reducing cycle, flow, and throughput times by further eliminating activities that do not add any value for the customer f08777dbb7
