Bless Me, Ultima Henderson Bless Me, Ultima is a coming-of-age novel by Rudolfo Anaya centering on Antonio Márez y Luna and his mentorship under his curandera and protector, Ultima. Teachers across disciplines in middle schools, high schools and universities have adopted it as a way to implement multicultural literature in their classes. Anaya's use of Spanish, mystical depiction of the New Mexican landscape, use of cultural motifs such as La Llorona, and recounting of curandera folkways such as the gathering of medicinal herbs, gives readers a sense of the influence of indigenous cultural ways that are both authentic. The novel reflects Hispano culture of the 1940s in rural New Mexico. It has become the most widely read and critically acclaimed novel in the New Mexican literature canon since its first publication in 1972. Fitzgerald, Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston, To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee, and The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck 4a304dd4b6
