Muhammad's first revelation 32. When the Moon Split (A Biography of the Prophet Muhammad). "Sahih al-Bukhari 4953 Prophetic Commentary on the Qur'an (Tafseer - In Islam, the exact date of Muhammad's first revelation is disputed, but it is generally believed by Muslims to have occurred in 610 AD. Riyadh: Darussalam. (1998). According to Islamic belief, during this time, Muhammad sought solitude after repeatedly experiencing transcendental dreams in which he was told of his upcoming responsibility as a messenger of God, prompting him to retreat to Jabal al-Nour near Mecca, where, while isolating at the Cave of Hira, he was visited by the angel Gabriel, who revealed to him the beginnings of what would become known as the Quran. Thus, at the age of 40, Muhammad's religious career as the "Seal of the Prophets" had begun. p ddd21da02b

Taqiyah (cap) Aside from being an adornment, the taqiyah has deeply ingrained significance in Islamic culture, reflecting the wearer's faith, devotion, and sometimes regional identity. While the taqiyah is deeply rooted in Muslim traditions, its use varies based on cultural context rather than strict religious guidelines. In the United States and the United Kingdom, it is also referred to as a "kufi", although the Kufi typically has more of an African connotation while the taqiyah has a more universal connotation. the peci, or songkok, is the national dress.
