Nick Bottom Puck is first introduced in the fairies' story and creates the drama of the lovers' story by messing up who loves whom, and places the donkey head on Bottom's in his story. Similarly, Bottom is performing in a play in his story intending it to be presented in the lovers' story, as well as interacting with Titania in the fairies' story. Bottom and Puck are the only two characters who converse with and progress the three central stories in the whole play. 'strike' may again suggest a military context for the cutting of bowstrings, though any reference to military archery is comic since the 'bow' in this case is Nick Bottom is a character in Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream who provides comic relief throughout the play.
