List of automobiles notable for negative reception and innovations like a motor block made completely of aluminum and an opening rear window that, together with a folding backseat, allowed for decent luggage Some models of automobiles receive high positive acclaim or negative reviews in the media and trade magazines. The automobiles on this list received overwhelming negative reviews based on a myriad of factors, including failures in the marketplace. Reviews are both subjective and performance-based, though there are no objective quantifiable standards. Different sources use a variety of criteria for criticism, for example, the worst cars for the environment, meeting criteria for the worst crash test scores, the lowest projected reliability, and the lowest projected residual values, earning a "not acceptable" rating after thorough testing, determining if a car has performed to expectations using owner satisfaction surveys (whether they "would definitely buy the same car again if given the choice"), "lemon lists" of unreliable cars with bad service support, and opinionated writing with humorous tongue-in-cheek descriptions by those with a "self-proclaimed voice of reason" 4ebc079024

Rootology's opening view was that motivation for editing is not important, it is the end result of that editing - the content - that matters. They asserted that if the content is policy compliant, there shouldn't be a problem, and this viewpoint received 102 support votes, the most of any statement. While there were few other statements directly in favour of paid editing, iridescent felt allowing it would be a net positive because a declaration of intent would reveal potential bias; pfctdayelise pointed out that the German Wikipedia had allowed paid editing; David Shankbone said that existing policies take care of conflict of interest issues; LessHeard vanU felt that we all have an inclination toward bias which the shared editing process would hopefully amalgamate to a neutral point of view, and expressed a common view that editors should reveal any potential bias, such as a relationship with the subject, or a financial gain. Thekohser asserted that most experienced paid content editors are likely producing higher-quality, more compliant content than volunteer editors. 4ebc079024 1348 4ebc079024 spell out abbreviations before you use them (ex: we don't what LNWR means), like "XYZ Airlines (XYZA)"...then you can use XYZA the next time. Some 66 support votes were cast for this view, the highest among any statement criticizing paid editing. FayssalF suggested a template to identify articles which had been edited by paid editors; YellowMonkey gave an example of a known paid article on a businessman which did not contain details of lawsuits for fraud against the businessman; Fred Bauder felt that endorsement of paid advocacy opened the door to influencing Wikipedia content. 4ebc079024 1929 4ebc079024 1001_Movies_You_Must_See_Before_You_Die 4ebc079024 1998_Solheim_Cup 4ebc079024 2005-06_Calgary_Flames_season 4ebc079024 Yes, you are right, there were quite a lot of other terms which could be linked.
