Furthermore, the Qur'an brings across the idea that anyone who propagates the message of justice and acts accordingly will be justly rewarded with their place in jannah. It states what the various punishments for certain crimes should be along with the justification behind this reasoning. There are two ways in which justice operates: in a legal sense and in a divine sense. Regarding justice in the legal sense, the Qur'an tells Muslims not only how to conduct themselves, but is also highly important regarding
