African historiography analysis of diffused features and reconstructed old vocabularies. By comparing the present-day vocabularies and phonetics of related languages, proto-languages African historiography is a branch of historiography involving the study of the theories, methods, sources, and interpretations used by scholars to construct histories of Africa. Most African societies recorded their history via oral tradition, resulting in a lack of written records documenting events before European colonialism. African historiography has therefore lent itself to contemporary methods of historiographical study, the utilisation of oral sources, and the incorporation of evidence derived from various auxiliary disciplines, differentiating it from other continental areas of historiography due to its multidisciplinary nature 4c2a93e100

Wikipedia:Language learning centre/Word list storms stormtroopers stormy story storybook storyline storylines storyteller storytellers storytelling stout stouter stoutest stoutly stoutness stove stovepipe Drawing up a comprehensive list of words in English is important as a reference when learning a language as it will show the equivalent words you need to learn in the other language to achieve fluency. You can use the list to generate your own lists in whatever language you're learning and to test yourself. Eventually these words will all be translated into big lists in many different languages and using the words in phrase contexts as a resource. A big list will constantly show you what words you don't know and what you need to work on and is useful for testing yourself 4c2a93e100
