Kirk (talk) 18:22, 13 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed You'd think that after this long, I'd have ironed out these kinds of things. Both fixed now, thanks for catching them, Nikki. Parsecboy (talk) 16:55, 24 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Added namesake citation. 93f1d826ed Support on prose per standard disclaimer. I've looked at the changes made since I reviewed this for A-class. These are my edits. - Dank (push to talk) 01:42, 13 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed

Added original PD-info aswell. GermanJoe (talk) 15:27, 21 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Closing note: This candidate has been promoted, but there may be a delay in bot processing of the close. Please see WP:FAC/ar, and leave the {{featured article candidates}} template in place on the talk page until the bot goes through. Graham Colm (talk) 23:10, 29 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Fixed - oddly, this image has gone through probably a dozen FACs (if not more) and no one noticed that until now (and oddly, neither did Demoeconomist when he uploaded it originally). Good catch. Parsecboy (talk) 15:16, 21 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Support - I added the note about the burn rate to the article from the FA class article, looks good for promotion. Kirk (talk) 19:18, 26 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Support I have reviewed at milhist A-class and have nothing to add now. The PD-situation of the original work (all PD-tags incl. UK) can be mentioned in a second license section under "for the original" (optional). GermanJoe (talk) 08:12, 14 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed After 1915 the boilers were modified to burn oil, which would be sprayed on the coal to increase its burn rate... the class article has an note for this which is missing which I think is necessary; a brief explanation why an increased burn rate was a good thing is probably fine. 93f1d826ed I switched the 'sisters' link to go to the class article not the term sister ship. 93f1d826ed SMS Oldenburg[edit] 93f1d826ed Another article on a WWI-era German battleship, part of this Good Topic. This article has been waiting in the queue for a while, and has passed GA and A-class reviews some time ago. I look forward to working with reviewers to ensure this article meets the highest standards and exemplifies Wikipedia's best work. Thanks to all who take the time to review the article. Parsecboy (talk) 18:07, 12 June 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Image check - mostly all OK (PD-age, own work). Sources and authors provided. 1 issue: 93f1d826ed Support. I reviewed this article at MILHIST ACR, have checked the subsequent edits and consider it currently meets the FA criteria. 2013 (UTC)reply 93f1d826ed Source review - spotchecks not done 93f1d826ed I think the secondary battery needed links, so I used the class article's infobox format: 15 cm (5.9 in) SK L/45 guns, 8.8 cm (3.5 in) SK L/45 93f1d826ed Comments 93f1d826ed Why wikilink NYC, particularly when Annapolis isn't linked?
