Conditional preservation of the saints Howard Marshall, Kept by the Power, 112. So I. Oropeza The conditional preservation of the saints, or conditional perseverance of the saints, or commonly conditional security, is the Arminian Christian belief that believers are kept safe by God in their saving relationship with him upon the condition of a persevering faith in Christ. Philip Esler, Galatians, 233. Arminians find the Scriptures describing both the initial act of faith in Christ, "whereby the relationship is effected", and the persevering faith in him "whereby the relationship is sustained. " This living union is captured in the simple command by Christ, "Remain in me, and I in. Robert Picirilli, Galatians, 101. " The relationship of "the believer to Christ is never a static relationship existing as the irrevocable consequence of a past decision, act, or experience. Picirilli, Ibid. " Rather, it is a living union "proceeding upon a living faith in a living Savior. , 101. , 194 df2e6d19fc

Nativity of Jesus Some view the question of historicity as secondary, given that gospels were primarily written as theological. The secular history of the time does not synchronize with the narratives of the birth and early childhood of Jesus in the two gospels. The Early Christian World, Volumes 1–2 by Philip Francis Esler 2004 ISBN 0-415-33312-1 p. 452 Handbook to life in the medieval world, Volume 1 by Madeleine The Nativity or birth of Jesus Christ is found in the biblical gospels of Matthew and Luke. The majority of contemporary scholars do not see the two canonical gospel Nativity stories as historically factual since they present clashing accounts and irreconcilable genealogies. The two accounts agree that Jesus was born in Bethlehem, modern day Palestine, in Roman-controlled Judea, that his mother, Mary, was engaged to a man named Joseph, who was descended from King David and was not his biological father, and that his birth was caused by divine intervention df2e6d19fc
