Nativity of Jesus image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible. —Colossians The Nativity or birth of Jesus Christ is found in the biblical gospels of Matthew and Luke. The two accounts agree that Jesus was born in Bethlehem, modern day Palestine, in Roman-controlled Judea, that his mother, Mary, was engaged to a man named Joseph, who was descended from King David and was not his biological father, and that his birth was caused by divine intervention. The secular history of the time does not synchronize with the narratives of the birth and early childhood of Jesus in the two
