The Twelve Days of Christmas (song) This wording must have been opaque to many even "The Twelve Days of Christmas" is an English Christmas carol and nursery rhyme. A large number of different melodies have been associated with the song, of which the best known is derived from a 1909 arrangement of a traditional folk melody by English composer Frederic Austin. A classic example of a cumulative song, the lyrics detail a series of increasingly numerous gifts given to the speaker by their "true love" on each of the twelve days of Christmas (the twelve days that make up the Christmas season, starting with Christmas Day). The carol, whose words were first published in England in the late eighteenth century, has a Roud Folk Song Index number of 68. regional English expression for "coal-black" (the name of the collie dog breed may come from this word)
