Wolf hunting Some people see it as cruel, unnecessary. Wolves are mainly hunted for sport, for their skins, to protect livestock and, in some rare cases, to protect humans. Wolf hunting is the practice of hunting wolves. The threat wolves posed to both livestock and people was considered significant enough to warrant the conscription of whole villages under threat of punishment, despite the disruption of economic activities and reduced taxes. Wolves are mainly hunted for sport, for their skins, to protect livestock and, in some rare cases, to protect humans. Wolves have been actively hunted since 8,000 to 10,000 years ago, when they first began to pose a threat to livestock of Neolithic human communities. The hunting of gray wolves, while originally actively endorsed in many countries, has become a controversial issue across the globe. Wolf hunting is the practice of hunting wolves. Historically, the hunting of wolves was a huge capital- and manpower-intensive operation
