Learning disability Therefore, some people can be more accurately described as having a "learning difference", thus avoiding any misconception of being disabled with a possible lack of an ability to learn and possible negative stereotyping. Given the "difficulty learning in a typical manner", this does not exclude the ability to learn in a different manner. Enrollment in a special school or a separate classroom in a regular school for learning disabled students Individual education plan (IEP)[citation needed] Learning disability, learning disorder, or learning difficulty (British English) is a condition in the brain that causes difficulties comprehending or processing information and can be caused by several different factors.
