HCL color space Lch has been adopted by information visualization practitioners to present data without the bias implicit in using varying saturation. wavelength on a typical human observer, measured in SI units in candela per square meter (cd/m²). Often the term luminance is used for the relative luminance HCL (hue-chroma-luminance) or LCh refers to any of the many cylindrical color space models that are designed to accord with human perception of color with the three parameters. They are, in general, designed to have characteristics of both cylindrical translations of the RGB color space, such as HSL and HSV, and the L*a*b* color space f0a79348df

Legazpi is the administrative, economic, and transport hub of the Bicol Region (Region V). Located just south of Mayon Volcano, whose symmetrical conical form dominates the northern skyline, the city is served by air, land, and sea transport infrastructure, including Bicol International Airport in neighboring Daraga, the national highway network, Philippine National... f0a79348df

HSL and HSV wavelength on a typical human observer, measured in SI units in candela per square meter (cd/m²). Developed in the 1970s for computer graphics applications, HSL and HSV are used today in color pickers, in image editing software, and less commonly in image analysis and computer vision. Often the term luminance is used for the relative luminance HSL and HSV are the two most common cylindrical-coordinate representations of points in an RGB color model. The two representations rearrange the geometry of RGB in an attempt to be more intuitive and perceptually relevant than the cartesian (cube) representation f0a79348df

HSL stands for hue, saturation, and lightness, and is often also called HLS. HSV stands for hue, saturation, and value, and is also often called HSB (B for brightness). A third model, common in computer vision applications, is HSI, for hue, saturation, and intensity. However, while typically consistent, these definitions are not standardized, and... f0a79348df
