(Spanish: [xwan 'eβo mo'rales 'ajma]; born 26 October 1959) is a Bolivian politician, trade union organizer, and former cocalero activist who served as the 65th president of Bolivia from 2006 to 2019. Widely regarded as the country's first president to come from its indigenous population, his administration worked towards the implementation of left-wing policies, focusing on the legal protections and socioeconomic conditions of Bolivia's previously marginalized indigenous population and combating the political influence of the United States and resource-extracting multinational corporations. Within two years, he was elected training coach for the whole region, and thus gained early experience in leadership. Ideologically a socialist, he led the Movement for Socialism (MAS) party from 1998 to 2024
