History of Marino Marinese events have often been of considerable importance in the local and sometimes even international historical context, so much so that several scholars in various eras have tried their hand at collecting the historical memories of this town. 4-7. In the Middle Ages the castle knew its period of greatest splendor under the rule successively of the Counts of Tusculum, the Frangipane, the Orsini, the Apostolic Chamber, the Caetani, and finally the Colonna, of whom it was a historic stronghold. However, the feudal lords and the community have been concerned at all times to erect monuments for public ornament, such as the only example of Gothic architecture in the Roman Castles, the former church of Santa Lucia (13th century), the sanctuary of Santa Maria dell'Acquasanta (13th century), the Frangipane (12th century) and Orsini (14th century) fortresses, Palazzo Colonna.
