One day, a man named Merkemans, who had managed a company that went bankrupt because of another man's embezzlement, pleads with de Koster for a job. De Koster refuses because his own firm has too impeccable a reputation to be connected with such a scandal, and Merkemans had the responsibility to prevent the fraud. A French police inspector named Lucas then arrives to talk to de Koster about Dutch money that is turning up illegally in Paris. Lucas suspects the de Koster company, but de Koster invites Kees to show Lucas that the books are sound. That night... e7f2dfe2e8
