These communications occurred around the same time that a denial-of-service (DOS) attack took down Slater's website - the right-wing blog Whale Oil Beef Hooked - and feature hundreds of items of correspondence in which prominent New Zealanders are criticised and vilified. Hager's book describes a lengthy history of correspondence between Slater and Justice Minister Judith Collins that eventually contributed to her resignation as a minister. In response to the allegations in the book, Prime Minister John Key said that he talked to Slater on a regular basis. Hager claimed that using bloggers rather than journalists allowed Key to maintain a friendly public persona, while using right-wing blogs as a vehicle to attack opponents. Other bloggers mentioned in the book include Matthew Hooton, Cathy Odgers (who goes by the name of Cactus Kate) and David Farrar. b96001d9f4
