Epistemology Epistemologists study the concepts of belief, truth, and justification to understand the nature of knowledge. To discover how knowledge arises, they investigate sources of justification, such as perception, introspection, memory, reason, and testimony. Also called "the theory of knowledge", it explores different types of knowledge, such as propositional knowledge about facts, practical knowledge in the form of skills, and knowledge by acquaintance as a familiarity through experience. right way. Further approaches require that the person would not Epistemology is the branch of philosophy that examines the nature, origin, and limits of knowledge. Another theory states that the belief is the product of a reliable belief formation process
