Soil governance Globally, governance of the soil has been limited to an agricultural perspective due to increased food insecurity from the most populated regions on earth. recognised that soil governance had been "scattered" in EU legislation, and lacked a cohesive isolated framework, therefore governance and management of Soil governance refers to the policies, strategies, and the processes of decision-making employed by nation states and local governments regarding the use of soil. The Global Soil Partnership, GSP, was initiated by the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) and its members with the hope to improve governance of the limited soil resources of the planet in order to guarantee healthy and productive soils for a food-secure world, as well as support other essential ecosystem services 0573f48643

Nondelegation is a legal principle that a branch of government cannot authorize another entity to exercise powers or functions assigned to itself. It is sometimes used to argue that the power of administrative agencies to write laws is unconstitutional, illegal, or otherwise invalid, or that it imposes restrictions on administrative agencies in their exercise of these powers. 0573f48643 == History == 0573f48643
