

Then Once 2 Morris Gleitzman

Pilot (Home and Away) Morris Gleitzman wrote that Tom and Pippa behaved in a way all parents aspire to in Pilot is the first episode of the Australian soap opera Home and Away. The episode was written by Bevan Lee, directed by Riccardo Pellizzeri, and executively produced by Alan Bateman. Numerous actors auditioned for the roles featured in the episode and cast details were announced on 4 July 1987. The premise for the episode and show was inspired by a chance stop Bateman made in a New South Wales coastal town. Production and filming of the pilot commenced on 6 July 1987 at Palm Beach. Home and Away and the pilot were developed for the Seven Network and Bateman had been planning it for three years prior. It premiered on Network Seven on 17 January 1988. He witnessed local opposition against a foster home from problematic city children. "favourite character was Milko, an invisible friend of one of the brats"
