I originally intended to prod both articles. I didn't want to go to AfD because I expected the consensus would lean towards deletion (which it currently is) and I didn't see a reason to waste people's time by discussing a seemingly clear case (which, incidentally, was why prodding was introduced). The only reason this article is at AfD rather than being prodded is because it had already been prodded once and thus couldn't be re-prodded. 75c97da48d The result was delete. For some reason this one is at AfD while the Brad Wright article has been prodded by the same nominator. It seems to me that both deserve discussion. I suppose we can weigh in on Brad Wright while discussing his blog; they are sufficiently entwined that discussing them both in one place may be acceptable. But I would suggest the nominator consider listing the Brad Wright article here too and making this a dual nomination. --MelanieN (talk) 16:28, 17 February 2012 (UTC)reply 75c97da48d Two Wikipedia administrator recall petitions are currently open 75c97da48d misc 75c97da48d Purge server cache 75c97da48d As for listing the other article here as well, I'd happily do so but have no idea how. I've only ever opened AfD's via Twinkle and don't know how to list a second article on an existing AfD. Can someone else add it please? ClaretAsh 05:36, ...

The blog does not appear to be mentioned by independent sources aside from other non-notable blogs. The only claim that might confer notability is "Wright on Health articles are slated to appear periodically on the popular internet news site The Huffington Post", but I don't see how this alone is sufficient to meet Wikipedia's notability criteria." 75c97da48d Wright on Health[edit] 75c97da48d Feedback on proposed redesign of Community Wishlist 75c97da48d archive 75c97da48d Guide to deletion 75c97da48d purge 75c97da48d The following discussion is an archived debate of the proposed deletion of the article below.
