Ford Model AA Basic chassis layout was done rapidly and mechanical development was moved forward quickly. Ford Model AA is a truck from Ford. The mechanical changes and upgrades were done during production of the vehicles. The Model AA followed similar design changes to the Model A during the AA's four years in production, often delayed anywhere from three to nine months. The designs of the Model A shared parts and materials with the Model AA Ford, notably the body, engine and interior. Body design and style was developed and then outsourced to various body manufacturers, including Briggs and Murray. The AA usually received plainer interiors than their car counterparts. As the Model T and TT became obsolete and needed to be replaced, Henry Ford began initial designs on the Model A and Model AA in 1926.
