Neoliberalism "The neoliberal food regime in Latin America: state, agribusiness transnational corporations and biotechnology". Canadian Journal of Development Studies/Revue Neoliberalism is a political and economic ideology that advocates for free-market capitalism, which became dominant in policy-making from the late 20th century onward. The term has multiple, competing definitions, and is most often used pejoratively. However, it is primarily employed to delineate the societal transformation resulting from market-based reforms. In scholarly use, the term is often left undefined or used to describe a multitude of phenomena 0a786b6643

Executive compensation in the United States (for example health-care executives rather than agribusiness executives for Hugh Grant of Monsanto), and changing back again when pay in that other industry In the United States, the compensation of company executives is distinguished by the forms it takes and its dramatic rise over the past three decades. Within the last 30 years, executive compensation or pay has risen dramatically beyond what can be explained by changes in firm size, performance, and industry classification. This has received a wide range of criticism 0a786b6643
