Delete Um....can you say Neologism? Despite being in the wine industry, prior to this AfD I've never heard of the term. Not only does Google produce pitiful mirages of sources (mostly YouTube videos and references to youtube videos) but AbleGrape.com, a search engine that specializes in wine sources also produces absolutely nothing. Agne/ 20:12, 13 February 2011

The result was no consensus with leave to speedy renominate. The nominator withdrew, the AFD was properly closed and then reopened 3 days after the fact. The proper thing to do in cases like this is to renominate. Ron Ritzman (talk) 23:11, 19 February 2011 (UTC)reply e213e56863 For a listing of ongoing discussions, see the dashboard. e213e56863

This language doesn't meet the general notability guideline. It is an academic language, with only one cited-paper, according to the ACM digital library. Even then, one paper with 15 citations isn't enough to establish notability for an academic project, and it doesn't have any other coverage.

Claims notability in French media, but the two links provided seem to just be postings of the video on French websites as well as a YouTube link. Google searches have turned up little. -
