"Come tu mi vuoi" (song), a 2004 song by Alexia 239d4e788b It tells a story of three couples whose lives sometimes parallels a Pirandello play in which the two principals, Camille and Ugo, are performing each night. 239d4e788b "Brutta notizia" (Alessia Aquilani; Francesco Tartarini) 239d4e788b "Gli... 239d4e788b "Funky al cuore" - 3:24 239d4e788b Additional writing for the Italian version was done by Roberto Ferri for the verses and Alexia, Emmanuela Cortesi, Giuseppe Lopizo and Monica Magnani for the chorus (though the background choir continue to sing "You need love" in the Italian version). The theme of the Italian version differs to that of the English version. The English version talks of a man's loneliness and need for love in his life, to stay positive, not give in and love will find him and it is not until the end of the song that Alexia sings that it is 'time for me and you', whereas in the Italian version, the man had been alone but Alexia had... 239d4e788b "Quello che sento" (Alessia Aquilani; Alfredo Petroli; Francesco Tartarini; Giuseppe Cominotti) 239d4e788b

239d4e788b Giada, a student of communication sciences in Rome, is the typical "nerd", clumsy, scruffy, "nerdy", dressed out of fashion girl, who neglects herself, to devote herself to her studies only. Of humble origins, to sustain herself economically, she works in a restaurant as a waitress and does tutoring. Riccardo instead, is a "trust-fund baby", dedicated only to his social life, made of evenings with friends and nights at the clubs. 239d4e788b Actually Riccardo, even if not physically attracted to Giada, is vaguely fascinated by the girl's eccentric personality and decides to give it a try. The plan initially works and Giada lets herself be seduced by Riccardo. But she, aware of the great difference between their lifestyles, she decides to change... 239d4e788b

After three years away, the actress Camille returns to Paris in an Italian troupe run by her husband Ugo, who is touring Europe with an Italian-language production of a Luigi Pirandello play Come Tu Mi Vuoi (As You Want Me). Camille is nervous because she still has feelings over leaving her lover Pierre, who she tracks down in a park. He seems unchanged and has still not finished writing his doctoral thesis on Martin Heidegger. 239d4e788b The album was released on CD through Epic (Sony Code 519752) and would be the final album of hers to be released by Sony.

239d4e788b The song was written by Bruno Canfora, Antonio Amurri and Maurizio Jurgens. In 1966, it was recorded and released as a single by Italian singer Mina. This is one of the last singles recorded by Mina for the Ri-Fi label, and never appeared on studio albums, but only on compilations released after the singer's move to the PDU label. The reason for the release of the song was Mina's participation in the first season of the radio program Gran varietà, and "Sono come tu mi vuoi" was also the main theme for it.
