Pandurang Vasudeo Sukhatme As a part of his work at the Food and Agriculture Organization in Rome, he developed statistical models for assessing the dimensions of hunger and future food supplies for the world. He graduated in 1932 from Fergusson College with Mathematics as principal subject and Physics as subsidiary subject. From 1932 to Pandurang Vasudeo Sukhatme (1911–1997) was an Indian statistician. He also developed methods for measuring the size and nature of the protein gap. He is known for his pioneering work of applying random sampling methods in agricultural statistics and in biometry, in the 1940s. Maharashtra in India.
