Order of St. Cuthbert These disciplines, intentionally practiced, form the rule by which the members of the order's lives are guided. The order currently has monastics in the United States, Canada, and Nigeria. Intentionality and certain disciplines have long been recognized for their value in aiding sojourners along the way of a monastic life. A life consecrated to Christ is one lived communally with those who sojourn together as teachers, companions, and guides; soul friends or anam cara. The Order of St Cuthbert is an international Anglican monastic order that follows a historic Celtic monastic tradition and rule, which is similar to that of a Franciscan rule. Prayer, fasting, community, work, and study are mainstays of a life consecrated to Christ and His Church. The Order of Saint Cuthbert is an Anglican religious community that invites every Christian to live in the sacred life they have been called 8b41af770d
