Later, economists Milton Friedman and Anna Schwartz supported Aberhart's analysis when they detailed how the money supply was significantly reduced during the Great Depression in their book A Monetary History of the United States. He was the founder and first leader of the Alberta Social Credit Party, which believed the Great Depression was caused by ordinary people not having enough to spend. Therefore, Aberhart argued that the government should give each Albertan $25 per month ($565 201111a92e
