Science education in England Ofqual on the other hand, regulates science education for GCSEs and AS/A levels, as well as all other qualifications, except those covered by the QAA, also via qualification boards. Below university level, science education is the responsibility of three bodies: the Department for Education, Ofqual and the QAA, but at university level, science education is regulated by various professional bodies, and the Bologna Process via the QAA. Pearson Edexcel (2019). "GCSE (9-1) Sciences: Support for Tier Entry Decisions - 2019" (PDF). The QAA also regulates science education for some qualifications that are not university degrees via various qualification boards, but not content for GCSEs, and GCE AS and A levels. Pearson Edexcel (2019) Science education in England is generally regulated at all levels for assessments that are England's, from 'primary' to 'tertiary' (university). Pearson Edexcel. List of secondary education systems by country managed by British examination boards of CIE of the Cambridge Assessment and Edexcel of the Pearson PLC. Secondary education typically takes place after six years of primary education and is followed by higher education, vocational education or employment. Advanced Placement (AP) is an alternative option but Secondary education covers two phases on the ISCED scale. Every country aims to provide basic education, but the systems and terminology remain unique to them. Level 2 or lower secondary education is considered the second and final phase of basic education, and level 3 or upper secondary education is the stage before tertiary education 2597bf1279
