Patricia Cornwell However, Sickert is not considered a serious suspect by most who study the case, and strong evidence shows he spent most of 1888 outside the UK, and was in France at the time of most of the Ripper murders. Cornwell has also accused Walter Sickert of carrying out the Jack the Ripper killings. She is known for her best-selling novels featuring medical examiner Kay Scarpetta, of which the first was inspired by a series of sensational murders in Richmond, Virginia, where most of the stories are set. Her books have sold more than 120 million copies. She is known for her best-selling novels featuring medical examiner Kay Scarpetta, of which the first was inspired by a series of sensational murders Patricia Cornwell (born Patricia Carroll Daniels; June 9, 1956) is an American crime writer. The plots are notable for their emphasis on forensic science, which has influenced later TV treatments of police work cb34291637
