While theology attempts to understand the transcendent or supernatural according to traditional religious accounts, religious studies takes a more scientific and objective approach, independent of any particular religious viewpoint. Religious studies thus draws upon multiple academic disciplines and methodologies including anthropology, sociology, psychology, philosophy, and history of religion. www.religioustudies.org

Collections maintenance inventories, and risk management. The professionals most involved with collections maintenance include collection managers, registrars, and archivists, depending on the size and scope of the institution.

Collections maintenance takes place in two primary areas of the museum: storage areas and display areas. These policy sections should guide the scope of collections maintenance and designate responsibilities with staff members. Collections maintenance is part of the risk management field of collections management. The primary goal of collections maintenance or preventive conservation is to prevent further decay of cultural heritage by ensuring proper storage and upkeep including performing regular housekeeping of the spaces and objects and monitoring and controlling storage and gallery environments.
