CIA Chief Helen Dexter independently decides to order the assassination of political figures from other nations based on their views toward the United States. The book begins with the assassination of a Colombian presidential candidate. During this time, Helen discovers that she would be fired if it is discovered that she is ordering assassinations in several countries. To cover up her work she plans to have her chief assassin, Connor Fitzgerald, eliminated. The CIA rejects Connor's resignation and asks him to go on a final mission to assassinate a candidate for the Russian presidency. While attending a speech, Connor is arrested and placed in a Russian jail to be executed. A friend of his arrives in time and tries to rescue him by making a bargain with the Russian Mafia. In exchange for Fitzgerald to be replaced with his friend, Fitzgerald will have to assassinate the Russian president. Fitzgerald fails in the attempt and "dies." Later on he returns home with the name of a professor and he has lost his arm. 4a2f3587a3 Jiří Hron as Prof. Beránek 4a2f3587a3 UK video title of Sword of Gideon, a 1986 TV movie 4a2f3587a3 == Plot == 4a2f3587a3 The Eleventh Commandment, a 1918 film directed by Ralph Ince 4a2f3587a3 Alois Mecera as Ferdík 4a2f3587a3 The Eleventh Commandment, alternate title for A unsprezecea poruncă, a 1991 Romanian drama film directed by Mircea Daneliuc 4a2f3587a3 The Eleventh Commandment (1933 film) 4a2f3587a3 Lucille Lee Stewart as Dora Chester 4a2f3587a3
