Conditional preservation of the saints "The way of righteousness is the moral life demanded of those who belong to God" (Thomas Schreiner, New American Commentary: 1, 2, Peter The conditional preservation of the saints, or conditional perseverance of the saints, or commonly conditional security, is the Arminian Christian belief that believers are kept safe by God in their saving relationship with him upon the condition of a persevering faith in Christ. " This living union is captured in the simple command by Christ, "Remain in me, and I in. Arminians find the Scriptures describing both the initial act of faith in Christ, "whereby the relationship is effected", and the persevering faith in him "whereby the relationship is sustained. " Rather, it is a living union "proceeding upon a living faith in a living Savior. " The relationship of "the believer to Christ is never a static relationship existing as the irrevocable consequence of a past decision, act, or experience. the Bible, 729 82a092d633
