Charades appeared in magazines and books, and on the folding fans of the Regency. A variant was to have teams who acted scenes out together while the others guessed. Today, it is common to require the actors to mime their hints without using any spoken words, which requires some conventional gestures. Originally, the game was a dramatic form of literary charades: a single person would act out each syllable of a word or phrase in order, followed by the whole phrase together, while the rest of the group guessed. The answers were sometimes printed on the reverse of the fan, suggesting that they Charades (UK: , US:) is a parlor or party word guessing game.
